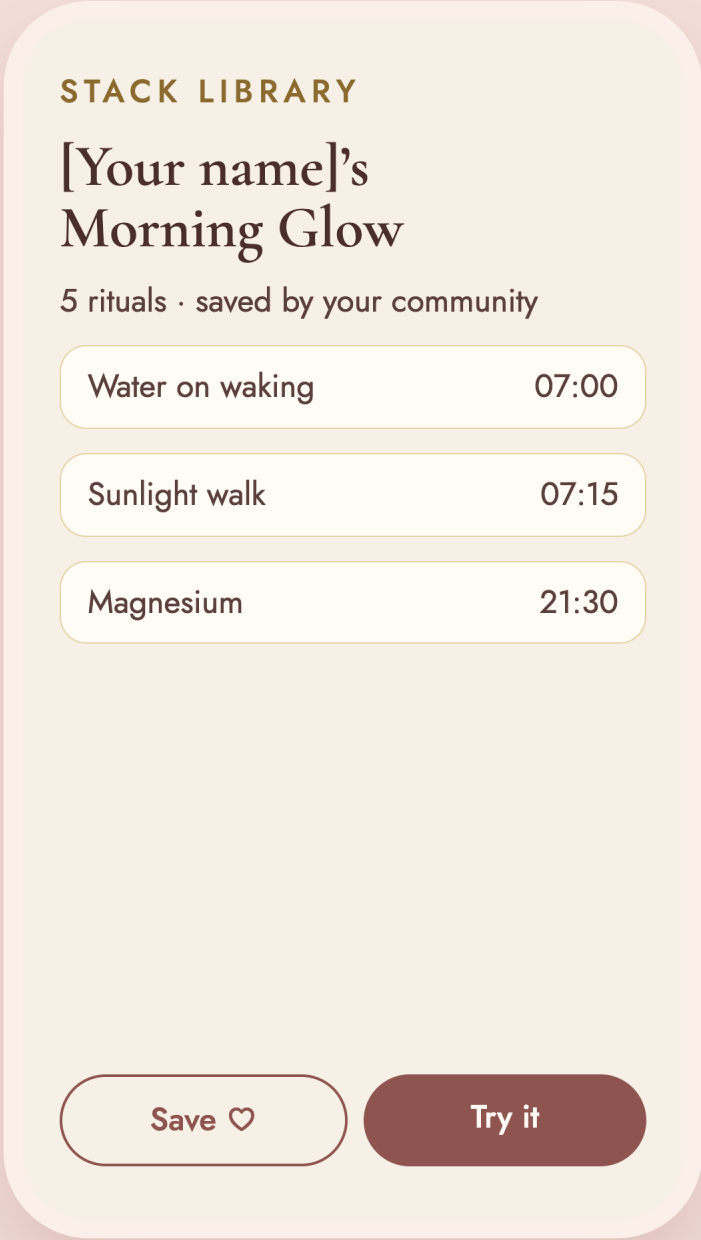
HEAVN

Your routine, shared.

How HEAVN Angels share their rituals, and how their community saves them, tries them and does them together.



WHAT HEAVN IS

A daily routine built around the day people actually have.

Rituals, timed to real life

Wake-up, meals, movement and bedtime become small rituals with gentle reminders.

An Angel Stack

Each member keeps their own stack of rituals, supplements, classes and food, all in one place.

A coach and a community

An AI coach for the days that don't go to plan, plus buddies, love notes and check-ins.

HOW RITUAL SHARING WORKS

Four steps from your routine to their day.

Share your routine

Send us what you do, take and eat, and roughly when. We turn it into your ritual.

It goes live under your name

“[Your name]’s Morning Glow” appears in the HEAVN Stack Library, after you approve it.

Share one link

Your personal link goes in your bio, stories or newsletter.

They follow along

Followers save it, try it, and get gentle reminders that help it stick.

YOUR PAGE IN THE STACK LIBRARY

Your ritual, with your name on it.

Your title, cover and story

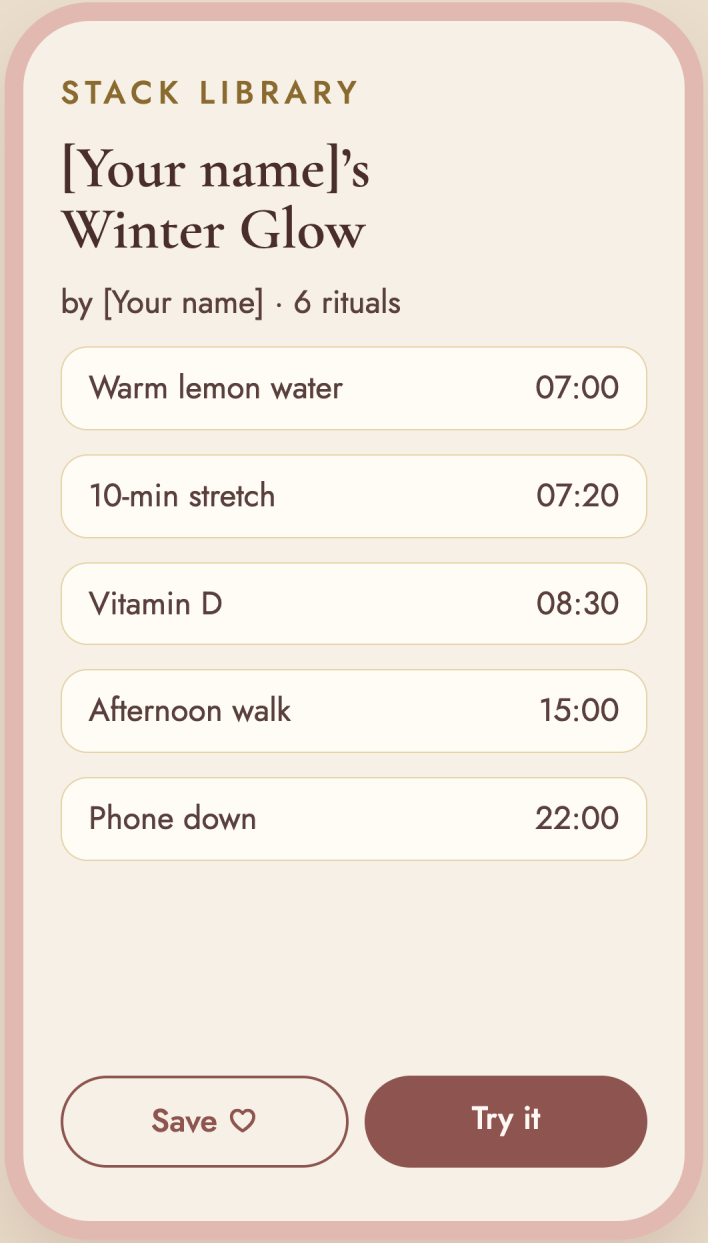
Name it, add a cover image and a line on why it works for you.

Every step, timed

Each item shows its time and your note, e.g. “I take this before bed for deeper sleep.”

Always yours to update

Change it whenever your routine changes. Followers get a gentle “updated” heads-up.



WHAT YOUR FOLLOWERS CAN DO

Three ways to make it theirs.

Save it

It goes into their own Stack Library to come back to. Nothing changes in their routine until they choose.

Add a few items

They tick the steps they want, and only those join their day, with your times and notes pre-filled.

Set it as their stack

Follow your whole ritual for a season. Their own stack is saved, so they can switch back any time.

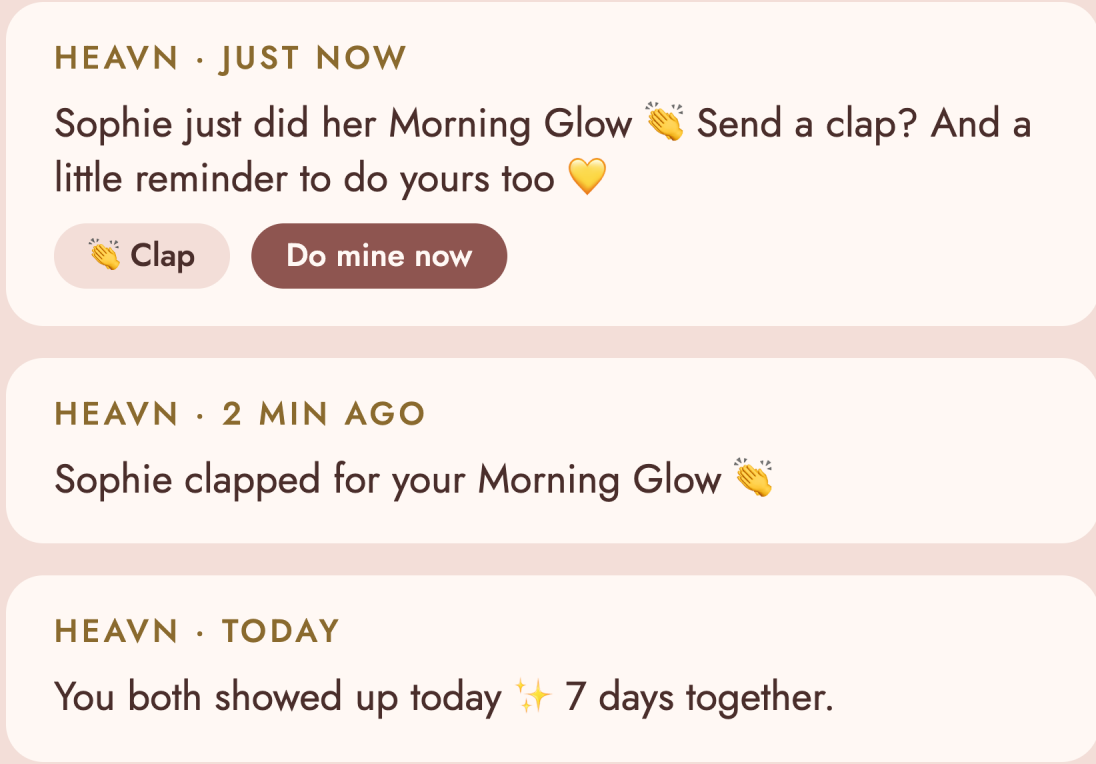
Every ritual carries a gentle note: this is a personal routine, not medical advice.

BUDDY RITUALS

Better together.

Invite a friend to any ritual. When one of you ticks it off, the other can send a clap, and gets a gentle nudge to do theirs too. Do it on the same day and you build a shared streak.

Buddies only ever see the shared ritual. Never the rest of your stack, mood or diary.



FOR BRAND PARTNERS

Built into people's days, not their feeds.

Member perk · free to start

An exclusive offer, at the right moment

A HEAVN-only discount shown when a member adds your product to their stack, plans your class or builds their pantry.

Branded ritual

"7-day gut reset with [Brand]"

A ritual we create together, published in the Stack Library with your name, guiding members day by day with reminders and check-ins.

All partner content is clearly labelled "Partner". Our coach never presents a brand as its own advice.

PAY IT FORWARD

HEAVN is a social enterprise. Members can pay a little more to gift a free or half-price year to someone for whom cost is a barrier.

£42

a year for HEAVN, about 81p a week

1 Angel

membership gifts one free year to someone else

No forms

no proof needed to apply, just a kind welcome

BECOME A FOUNDING HEAVN ANGEL

What we'd love to do together.

A free year for you

Plus free years to gift to a few of your followers.

Your ritual, live

We build it from your routine and send you a preview to approve.

Your personal link

One link for your bio that opens your ritual in HEAVN.
